

Colonial Village Meeting Minutes

May 15, 2002

Meeting called to order at 7:00 pm by Anne Wilson, Vice-president. Board members also present were Jim Beckwith, Diane Krantz, Randy Williams, Michael Morofsky and Linda Seibold. Board members and new attendees introduced themselves.

Victor Celentino, Ingham County Board of Commissioners, announced he will run for another term and brought brochures that highlighted some of the recent ICBC's issues and activities.

Officer Wittsett, District Officer for the Lansing Police Department was invited to answer resident's questions and concerns.

Minutes from the April meeting were submitted and approved.

Jim reported the bank balance was $270.37 plus $400.00 beautification grant and $1,737.00 communication grants.

Anne had recently attended a meeting of other neighborhood groups called Linking Leaders. There will be another meeting on September 14th. Anne reminded everyone to please sign in.

Anne will be following up with the Department of Environmental Quality about the barrels that were removed from behind the Citgo station.

Michael was looking into an oily substance found in the old bathroom of the same building.

Michael recently sent a letter to E. Sharon Banks, Superintendent of Lansing School District, outlining concerns he has about the condition of Elmhurst Elementary.

Michael sent an e-mail to Officer Wojtysiak concerning a recent incident at his home.

Linda spoke about concerns of the lack of traffic calming measures in Area 2.

Randy reported that cvnanews.com is now a registered web site and he will continue adding information, as it is available.

Anita Beavers from the Grant Committee reported the checks have been deposited and volunteers are needed for brochure and sign design and newsletter distribution.

Under old business traffic calming is still a big concern for many members. Randy advised members to contact Shane Silsby with their opinions at 483-4249 or ssilsby@ci.lansing.mi.us.

Hobart Sales and Service has started construction of their new building.

Kathy Pelleran announced she is running for the At-large City Council position.

Hugh Clarke spoke about his campaign for Ingham County Circuit Judge.

The neighborhood garage sale will be June 1st.

The neighborhood picnic will be August 6th at Elmhurst Elementary.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30pm.

Minutes submitted by Diane Krantz
43 members including 6 board members present.